Subject: Parental Rights and Gender Identity ACCTS:00930000301

Dear Carman Bradley:

Thank you for your support of our government's recent policy direction surrounding gender identity, parental rights, protecting children and preserving both fairness and safety in sports. Our government intends to bring these policy changes forward in the fall, so there will be time for conversation and continued work to make sure we get things right.

Thank you for writing to me.

Sincerely,
Honourable Danielle Smith
Premier of Alberta
